Mr Wood.

Dear Sir:

If convenient can you advance me five dollars ($5.00). If so I can get a room up town and save 14 hours a week by not using the subway.

You can keep the note as a voucher and give to me or the one who pays me.

As you have advanced me two dollars ($2.00) the total will be seven dollars ($7.00).

Yours truly, Edwin A. Bower

My dear Mr. Belden :-

On the table before me is a letter from you to Mr. Wood which give me your address.

The bonding company came across at last and I have been here since July 2nd. My finances were in a bad shape owing to the fact that I took a small job of four hours a day while waiting to hear from the bonding company. I had no idea it would take them so long Else I would have looked for a paying position and would have had $16.00 to $20.00 in the two weeks it take them to look me up.

I want to thank you for the kindness and interest you have shown in securing this place for me. I trust the society will be as pleased as I am.

Please remember me to Mr Belden and Corinne. I trust you are all having a delightful time at Dingman's Ferry where Lou that is.

The name sounds good to me. It seems as though there must be water and fish near about. I hope both the bathing and fishing are good.

If writing were not such an up hill job with me (on first page) I would write several pages more. As it is, please Excuse.

Yours truly
